UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

11 DHIMANT PATEL

Case No. 8:24-cv-02221-AH-KES

12 Plaintiff(s),

ORDER SETTING SCHEDULING CONFERENCE

13 v.

14 EDWARDS LIFESCIENCES CORPORATION, et al.

Date: January 15, 2026

15 Defendant(s).

Time: 09:00 AM

16

Courtroom: 9C

17

READ THIS ORDER CAREFULLY. IT CONTROLS THIS CASE AND DIFFERS IN SOME RESPECTS FROM THE LOCAL RULES.

21 This matter is set for a Scheduling Conference on the above date in Courtroom
22 9C of the First Street Courthouse, 350 West First Street, Los Angeles, CA 90012.

23 A. PRELIMINARY MATTERS

24 1. Service of Pleadings. If Plaintiff has not already served the operative 25 complaint on all Defendants, Plaintiff shall do so promptly and shall file proofs of 26 service of the summons and complaint within three (3) days thereafter. See Fed. R.
27 Civ. P. 4. Defendants also shall timely serve and file their responsive pleadings (if 28 not previously done) and comply the requirements of Local Rule 5-3.2. At the

1 Scheduling Conference, the Court will dismiss all remaining fictitiously named 2 Defendants. The Court will also set a date by which motions to amend the 3 pleadings or add parties must be heard.

4 2. Order Applies to Pro Se Litigants. “Counsel,” as used in this Order, 5 includes parties who have elected to appear without counsel and are representing 6 themselves in this litigation (hereinafter referred to as “pro se litigants”). Pro se 7 litigants must comply with this Order, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and 8 the Local Rules of the Central District of California. See Local Rules 1-3, 83-2.2.3.
9 Pro se litigants are required to participate in the Scheduling Conference.

10 3. Notice to be Provided by Counsel. The plaintiff’s counsel or, if the 11 plaintiff is appearing pro se, defense counsel, shall provide this Order to all known 12 parties who have not yet appeared or who appear after the date of this Order. This 13 and all other applicable orders in this case are available at the bottom of Judge 14 Hwang’s webpage (<http://www.cacd.uscourts.gov/honorable-anne-hwang>). The 15 Local Rules are available on the Central District of California website 16 <https://www.cacd.uscourts.gov/court-procedures/local-rules>).

17 4. Compliance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26. The Scheduling Conference will 18 be held pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. Rule 16(b). The parties are reminded of their 19 obligations to (i) make initial disclosures “without awaiting a discovery request”
20 (Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)) and (ii) confer on a discovery plan at least twenty-one
21 (21) days before the Scheduling Conference (Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f)). The Court 22 encourages counsel to agree to begin to conduct discovery actively before the 23 Scheduling Conference. At the very least, the parties shall comply fully with the 24 letter and spirit of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a) and thereby obtain and produce most of 25 what would be produced in the early stage of discovery. At the Scheduling
26 Conference, the Court will impose strict deadlines to complete discovery.

27 B. PARTIES MUST PREPARE AND FILE A JOINT RULE 26(f) REPORT

28 The Joint Rule 26(f) Report must be filed not later than fourteen (14) days

1 before the Scheduling Conference. A Mandatory Chambers Copy of the Joint Rule
2 26(f) Report must be delivered to Judge Hwang's box outside of the Clerk's Office
3 on the fourth floor of the First Street Courthouse by 12:00 p.m. the day after the 4 Joint Rule 26(f) Report is filed.

5 The Report shall be drafted by plaintiff unless plaintiff is a pro se litigant
6 or the parties agree otherwise but shall be submitted and signed jointly. "Jointly"
7 means a single report, regardless of how many separately represented parties 8 exist in the case.

9 The Joint Rule 26(f) Report shall specify the date of the Mandatory 10 Scheduling Conference on the caption page. Under the title, it shall list the 11 dates of the (1) Original Complaint; (2) Removal (if removed); (3) Responsive
12 Pleading; (4) and Trial (proposed). The Joint Rule 26(f) Report shall address 13 the matters set forth in Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f) and Local Rule 26, some of 14 which are enumerated below, and shall also contain the following:

15 1. Statement of the Case. A short synopsis (not to exceed two (2) pages)
16 of the claims, counterclaims, affirmative defenses, and procedural history.

17 2. Subject-Matter Jurisdiction. A statement of the specific basis of 18 federal jurisdiction, including supplemental jurisdiction. For federal question
19 jurisdiction, cite the federal law under which the claim arises. For diversity 20 jurisdiction, state each party's citizenship and the amount in controversy.
21 State whether the parties agree that federal jurisdiction exists and identify 22 the basis for any disagreements.

23 3. Legal Issues. A brief description of all key legal issues, including any 24 significant procedural, substantive, or evidentiary motions.

25 4. Parties, Evidence, etc. A list of parties, percipient witnesses, and key 26 documents on the main issues in the case. For conflict purposes, corporate parties 27 must identify all subsidiaries, parents, and affiliates.

28 5. Damages. The realistic range of provable damages.

1           6. Insurance. Whether there is insurance coverage, the extent of coverage,
2 and whether there is or will be a reservation of rights.

3           7. Motions.

4           a. Procedural Motions. A statement of the likelihood of motions
5 to add other parties or claims, file amended pleadings, transfer venue,
6 challenge the Court's jurisdiction, etc.

7           b. Dispositive Motions. A description of the issues or claims that 8 any party believes may be determined by motion to dismiss or motion for summary 9 judgment.

10          8. Manual for Complex Litigation. Whether all or part of the procedures
11 of the Manual for Complex Litigation should be utilized.

12          9. Discovery.

13           (a) Status of Discovery. A discussion of the present state of 14 discovery, including a summary of completed discovery, and any current or 15 anticipated disputes.

16           (b) Discovery Plan. A detailed discovery plan, as contemplated by 17 Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f). State what, if any, changes in the disclosures under Fed. R.
18 Civ. P. 26(a) should be made, the subjects on which discovery may be needed, 19 whether discovery should be conducted in phases or otherwise be limited, 20 whether applicable limitations should be changed or other limitations imposed,
21 and whether the Court should enter other orders. A statement that discovery 22 will be conducted as to all claims and defenses, or other vague description is not 23 acceptable.

24           (c) Discovery Cutoff. A proposed discovery cut-off date governing 25 the completion of all fact discovery, including resolution of all discovery motions.

26           (d) Expert Discovery. Proposed dates for expert witness disclosures
27 (initial and rebuttal) and expert discovery cutoff under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2).

1           10. Settlement Conference/Alternative Dispute Resolution (“ADR”).

2           A statement of what settlement negotiations have occurred, excluding any 3           statement of the terms discussed. The parties must state their preference for 4           mediation before: (i) the Magistrate Judge, (ii) the Court Mediation Panel, or 5           (iii) a private mediator (at the parties’ expense). The Court will exercise its 6           discretion to select an ADR option for the parties if they fail to state a preference.
7           No case will proceed to trial unless all parties, including an officer of all corporate 8           parties (with full authority to settle the case), have appeared personally and 9           participated in an ADR proceeding.

10           11. Trial.

11           (a) Trial Estimate. Provide a realistic estimate, in days, of the court
12           time required for trial and whether trial will be by jury or by Court. Each side 13           should specify (by number, not by name) how many witnesses it contemplates 14           calling. If the time estimate for trial given in the Joint Rule 26(f) Report exceeds 15           four (4) court days, counsel shall be prepared to discuss in detail the basis for the 16           estimate.

17           (b) Consent to Trial Before a Magistrate Judge. Whether the 18           parties agree to try the case (either by jury or court trial) before a Magistrate Judge.
19           See 28 U.S.C. § 636 (requiring party consent). The parties are strongly encouraged 20           to consider consenting to trial before a Magistrate Judge. The parties are free to 21           select from among all Magistrate Judges available for this purpose, not just the 22           Magistrate Judge assigned to the parties’ case.

23           (c) Lead Trial Counsel. List the name of the attorney who will serve 24           as lead trial counsel, as well as other attorneys who will participate in the trial.
25           Only one (1) attorney for a party may be designated as lead trial counsel unless 26           otherwise permitted by the Court. If a second lead trial counsel is permitted by the 27           Court, both counsel must attend the Pretrial Conference.

1           12. Independent Expert or Master. State whether this is a case in which 2       the Court should consider appointing a master pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 53 or an 3       independent expert. The appointment of a master may be especially appropriate if 4       there are likely to be substantial discovery disputes, numerous claims to be 5       construed in connection with a summary judgment motion, a lengthy Daubert
6       hearing, a resolution of a difficult computation of damages, etc.

7           13. Schedule Worksheet. The parties must make every effort to agree on 8       all pretrial and trial dates. The parties must submit a completed copy of the 9       attached Schedule of Pretrial and Trial Dates Worksheet (“Worksheet”) with their 10      Joint Rule 26(f) Report. The entries in the “Time Computation” column reflect 11      what the Court believes is appropriate for most cases and will allow the Court to 12      rule on potentially dispositive motions sufficiently in advance of the Final Pretrial
13      Conference. However, the parties may propose earlier dates by which the key 14      requirements must be completed. Each date should be stated as month, day, and 15      year (e.g., 2/10/2022). Hearings shall be on Wednesdays, beginning at 1:30 p.m.
16      Other deadlines not involving the Court may be scheduled any day of the week.
17      The parties must avoid holidays. The Court may order different dates than those 18      required. The discovery cut-off date is the last day by which all depositions must 19      be completed, responses to previously served written discovery must be provided, 20      and motions concerning discovery disputes must be heard, not filed. In other 21      words, any motion challenging the adequacy of discovery responses must be filed 22      timely, served, and calendared sufficiently in advance of the discovery cut-off date
23      to permit the responses to be obtained before that date, if the motion is granted. If 24      the parties wish the Court to set dates in addition to those on the Worksheet, they 25      may so request by a separate stipulation and proposed order. Additional hearings 26      are often appropriate for class actions, patent cases, and cases for benefits under 27      the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (“ERISA”). If the parties 28      agree on a date, the agreed-upon date should be put in the plaintiff’s column while

1 the defendant's column should be marked "Agree." If the parties disagree on a 2 date, each party should put their proposed date in their respective column.

3       14. Other Issues. A statement of any other issues affecting case
4 management, including unusually complex technical issues, related litigations,
5 disputes over protective orders, extraordinarily voluminous document production,
6 discovery in foreign jurisdictions, and any proposals concerning severance,
7 bifurcation, or other ordering of proof.

8       C. SCHEDULING CONFERENCE

9       1. Continuance. A request to continue the Scheduling Conference will be 10 granted only for good cause. The parties should refer to the Court's Standing Order
11 for additional guidance regarding requests for continuance. The parties should plan 12 to file the Joint Rule 26(f) report on the original due date even if a continuance of 13 the Scheduling Conference is granted.

14       2. Participation. Lead trial counsel must attend the Scheduling 15 Conference, unless excused by the Court for good cause. Remote appearances are 16 not permitted except for good cause shown. Instructions for remote appearances
17 can be found on Judge Hwang's webpage.

18       3. Vacating Scheduling Conference. The Court may vacate the 19 Scheduling Conference and issue the Scheduling Order based solely on the parties'
20 Joint Rule 26(f) Report pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(b).

21       4. Failure to Submit a Timely Joint Rule 26(f) Report. The failure to 22 timely submit a Joint Rule 26(f) Report or to attend the Scheduling Conference
23 may result in dismissal of the action, striking of the answer and entry default, 24 and/or imposition of sanctions.
